

CAROL 'C.J.' BOWMAN

April 11, 1944 - May 31, 2005

Carol "C.J." Bowman, 61, Kokomo, died 9:45 p.m. Tuesday, May 31, 2005, at her residence. Born April 11, 1944, in Cumberland, Md., she was a daughter of Joseph and Ursula (Rice) Brunner. On Sept. 3, 1977, in Kokomo, she married Raymond C. Bowman and he survives.

She graduated from Fort Hill High School of Cumberland, Md., and retired in September 1999 from the proto laboratory of Delco Electronics after 34 years of service. She had also worked at Sam's Club with product demonstrations.

She was a member of Judson Road Christian Church and UAW Local 292. She was active in Relay for Life. Carol liked car and street rod shows and enjoyed crafts. She painted saw blades for We Care for many years. She loved her family and friends and the times she could be with them.

Surviving along with her husband are her father and stepmother, Joseph and Doris Brunner, Cumberland, Md.; a daughter and son-in-law, Terisa and Allen Sharp, Kokomo; two grandsons, A.J. Sharp and Devon Sharp; a stepson and his wife, Scott and Amanda Bowman, Kokomo; three stepgrandchildren, Dane, Adam and Sarah Bowman; and a sister and brother-in-law, Sandy and Ted Twigg, Myrtle Beach, S.C. She was preceded in death by her mother.

Services are 1 p.m. Saturday at Eilers Mortuary Webster Street Chapel, 3400 S. Webster St., with the Rev. Dr. Gary Carpenter officiating. Burial will be in Albright Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Friday at the mortuary. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society and We Care with envelopes available at the mortuary.
