

BROWN, William D.

William D. Brown

May 22, 1933 - May 1, 2006

William D. Brown, 72, Kokomo, died at 6:33 p.m. Monday, May 1, 2006, at his residence.

Born May 22, 1933, in Union, he was the son of Herbert and Zelpha (Crowley) Brown. On June 5, 1954, he married Judith A. (Butler) Brown, who survives.

He was in the Air Force in 1953. He was retired from Continental Steel after 23 years, and also was a truck driver for Chrysler Corp. He attended Greentown Faith Apostolic Lighthouse Church, Greentown. He enjoyed fishing and camping.

Survivors include two sons, Gary D. Brown and wife Laurie, and William E. Brown and wife Rita; three daughters, Kathy Lynn Holland, Debra J. Lott, Sun-in Manning, all of Kokomo; grandchildren, Sean William Brown, Michael Lott, Sandra Kim Hunt, Faith Marie Fraizier, Benjamin Whited, Joshua Whited, Joshua Brown, Zachery Brown, Lucas Brown, Morgan Brown and Joseph Lott; four stepgrandchildren, Brandi, Alex, Nicklaus, and Ashley; 13 great-grandchildren; and one brother, Keith Brown, Connersville.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, Donald Ray Brown; a grandson, Daniel Lee Whited; two sisters, Ann Pearl St. Clair and Virginia Warren.

Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday in Greentown Faith Apostolic Lighthouse Church, 322 W. Payton, with Brother Herbert Goodrich officiating. Burial will be at Albright Cemetery, Kokomo. Calling will 4 to 8 p.m. today at the church. Memorial contributions can be made to the church. Envelopes will be available at visiting hours. Arrangements were handled by Hasler & Stout Funeral Home, Greentown.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 5/04/2006